Cover Design Committee headed by James Holcomb, Class of 1980

We, the class of 1983, wish to express our sorrow over the loss of our classmate, Randy Brown, who was taken away from us by a tragic illness. We will never lose our special memories of him. Randy will always belong to the class of 1983.

Principal

Hilton Otero Principal

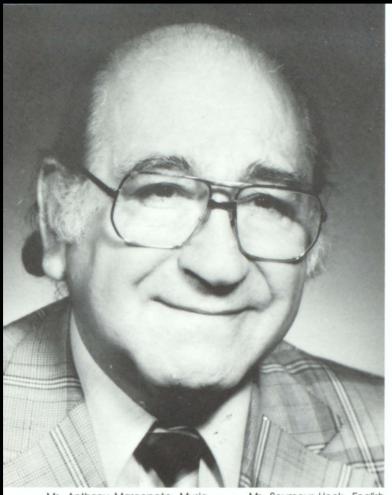

We, the class of 1983, wish to thank Mr. Otero for his wisdom and guidance throughout the years. We leave him strength and endurance to carry on with the future graduates of Arts High.

Alfredo Gentile Vice-Principal

The class of "83" would like to extend our fondest thanks and deepest appreciation for his undying support in our hard and trying times. What else can we say but THANKS.

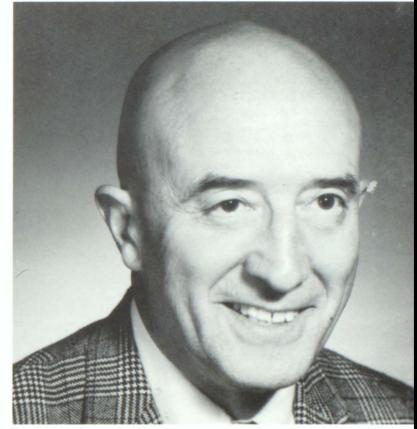

Vice-Principal

Mr. Anthony Marcopoto, Music

Mr. Seymour Heck, English

Mr. Anthony Sbrocco, Guidance

Mr. Louis Spindler, Art

Department Chairmen

We, the senior class, would like to express our appreciation to our three advisors; Ms. Raff, Mr. Carden, and Mr. Kyrejko for their tolerance, their concern, and most of all for their sharing of time with us during the past year. We thank them for their advice because we couldn't have made it without them.

Senior Advisors

We Remember ...

We, the class of 1983, will always remember Mrs. Mattie Wilkerson for her loving, kind, and caring ways as a teacher and friend. We wish her much joy and happiness in her retirement hoping that her life will be filled with as much love as she has given us.

Infant Day ...

The class of "83" reverts to its childhood just to show that we will never forget our younger days.

Jeans Day

Through years of love and pain the Class of 83 has survived. We celebrate our victory knowing that we have only begun to climb the ladder of success.

Still climbing, never ceasing..

Career Day ...

As all seniors must, we will enter the world of work, ranging in fields from practitioners to the press. Some of the professionals won't have to worry about unemployment!

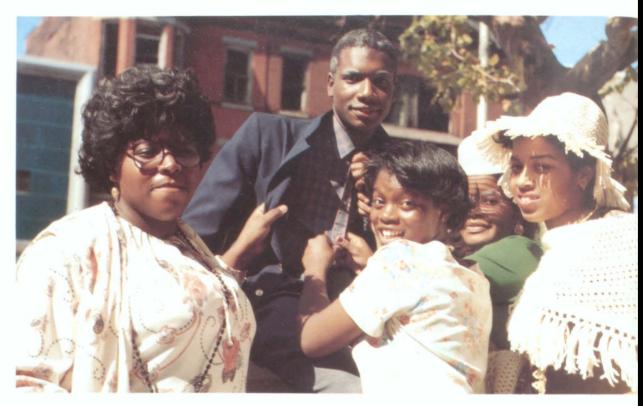

Working day and night

Golden Age Day

We know that even in the prime of our lives we will still be young at heart. Long live Geritol and dentures!

Switch Day - 1983

The seniors take a moment out of their busy schedules to find out how "the other half" lives.

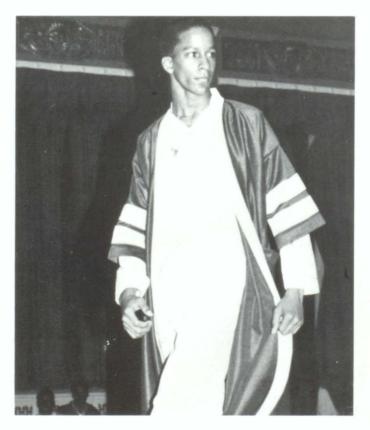

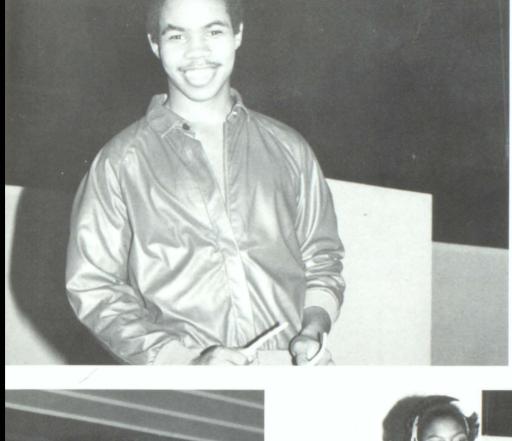

We presented an extravaganza in our junior year with an explosion of fashion ranging from lingerie to leather.

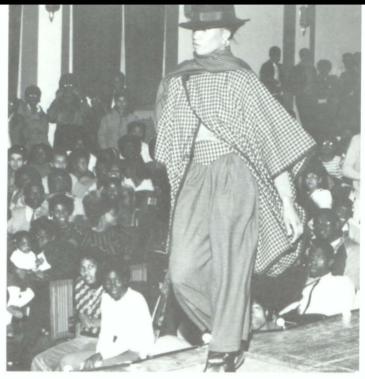

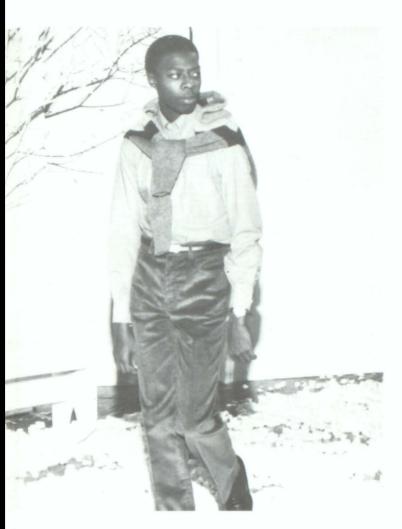

Senior Class Fashion Show

Taking it to the slopes

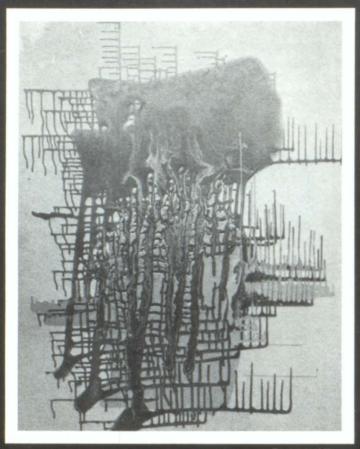

We witnessed a spectacular exhibition of showmanship from the Senior Class, with contributions coming from many talented sources. The fashion and set designers, and models ranging from freshmen to seniors, aided in the presentation of a sizzling winter affair, hot enough to melt all of the snow in the Arctic.

Winter Fair ... a gala event

It was a night full of winter fun and frolic for everyone, spiced with just a touch of class to make the recipe just right! The white elephant sale, superb art work, and performances by the Mass Chorus, Jazz Band, and Dance Ensemble made this event one which will live on in our hearts.

Halloween 1982 ... the good ... the bad ... the ugly

A thriller to remember!

Arts High's Gospel Extravaganza ... a Spiritual treat for all!

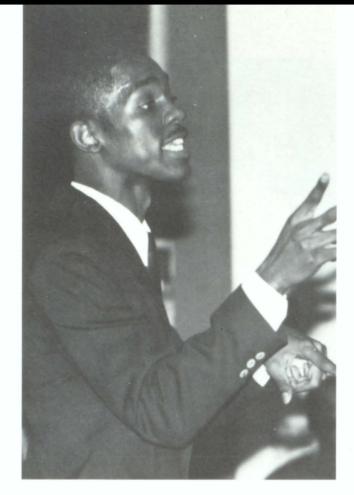

The Arts High Senior Class joined forces with the Gospel Chorus to make a milestone in the history of Arts High with the first Gospel Extravaganza. The Arts High Gospel Chorus, under the direction of Lauren Harris and James Wallace, were the featured guests. They, along with many other invited choirs, made the event quite an uplifting experience, with singing that was food for the heart, soul, and mind.

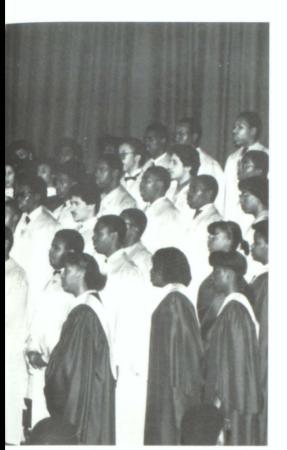

Winter Concert ... a night to remember

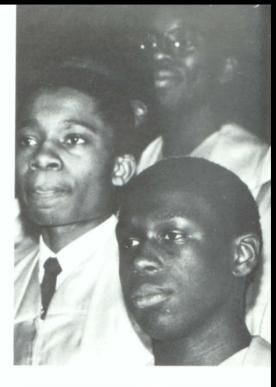

The night of January 29th was an evening of superb performances by the Concert Band, The Gospel Chorus, and the Honor's Chorus accompanied by the Concert Orchestra. A tremendous amount of preparation went into this concert. It was a delightful night for all.

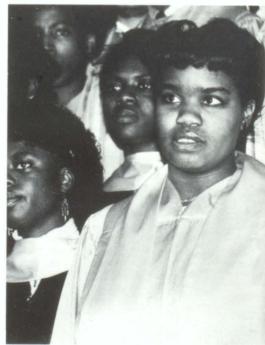

Festival of the Arts

The Concert Choir, accompanied by the orchestra, gave a splendid rendition of "Carmen". They were among the many performers at the Festival Of Arts.

Mr. Otero welcomes the invited audience of prospective freshmen to Arts High.

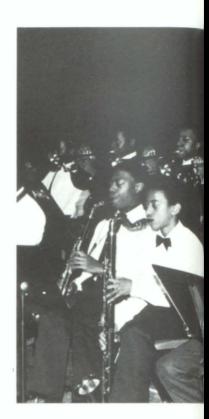

Festival Of The Arts

The Jazz Ensemble, directed by Mr. Bill Phipps, and the Dance Ensemble, under the advisorship of Mrs. Jeanne Tso, entertain the invited audience.

Drama Department

The senior drama class exhibited its talents with a unique production of Eugene lonesco's The Leader! The audience was delighted by the energy-filled performance, thus proving the true worth of the drama department at Arts High.

Soccer Team has remarkable season

The Varsity Soccer Team worked hard, with the cooperation of their coach Mr. A. Colatrella, to conclude a remarkable season with a total of 6 wins and 6 losses. The team did a very good job with the help of the captain, Michael Robinson, and the co-captains, Sam Davis and Adler Thompson. Other senior members of the team include Ronald Hills, Lamont Murphy and Thomas Jackson.

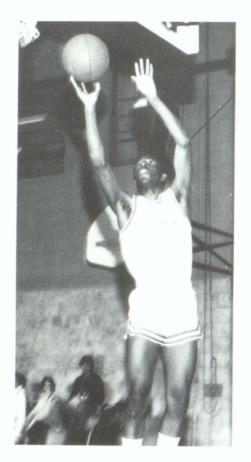

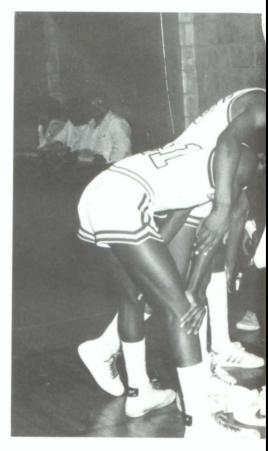

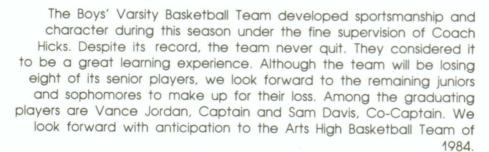

Cross Country Team never gives up despite losing season.

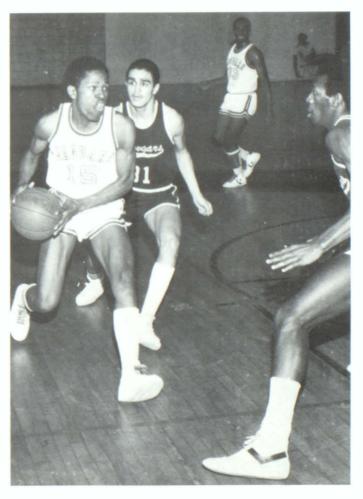

Basketball Team hopes for a winning season next year.

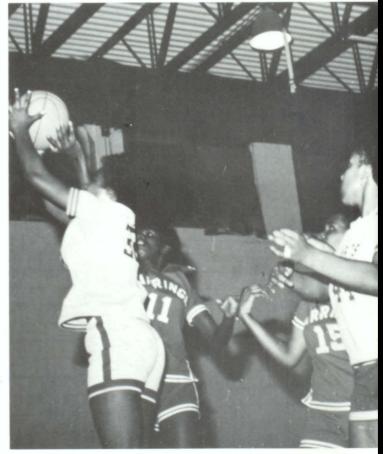

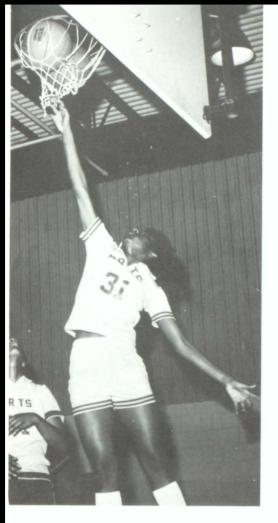

The Girls' Basketball Team invited all girls who were interested to participate this year. Under the direction fo Mr. Markowitz, the team finished the season with a record of 2 wins and 16 losses. We leave the future team lots of success and determination to improve.
